

Archery GB June Newsletter

Update on the new Website

The Society's refreshed website has now been launched. We have been contacted by clubs saying that they are not on the Club Finder should you find that your details are missing or are incorrect, please ask your club secretary to update here

If you have been using the RSS feed for your website you will need to update the link which is <http://www.sportfocus.com/rss/gnas/feed.cfm> - thank you!

So What's been going on since the last newsletter?

150th Anniversary: update and call for volunteers

This is the final call for volunteers for the 150 years celebration of our Society. For information on how to volunteer or see what is being proposed please click here. The deadline to submit your expression of interest is 30 June 2010.

Personal Performance Courses

Have you booked your place on the Personal Performance Courses? There are only two places remaining on the July course and the October course is filling up fast. More

Find out more about September's Archery World Cup Final

In September 2010 the world's best archers will descend on Edinburgh for the biggest, most important archery competition ever seen in the UK. More

Development Conference

The 2010 Development Conference will be held on 23 and 24 October 2010. Places are limited so it is a strictly first come first served event. More

Funding Advice

Every sports clubs at some stage needs assistance in starting a new project or buying new equipment or even building their own facility. There is a great deal of funding information available and we've pulled some of it together in our new Funding Guide More

Are you aged 16-19 years involved in Archery?

We want to hear from you. We are interested in the views of all young archers and will use different methods for getting young people's views. More

Performance News

There's a lot going on with our elite Archers as you can see with the news updates:

It's another silver for Nicky as American pips her in tense final

Nicky Hunt suffered an agonising defeat in the final of the women's compound individual tournament in Antalya, and had to settle for a second successive World Cup silver medal. More

Another international medal success for British archers

Britain has won the bronze medal in the men's compound team tournament at the FITA World Cup tournament, in Antalya, Turkey. More

Top Archers Compete for Masters Title

Recently crowned European champion Andy Rikunenko was given a hero's welcome when he turned up at the UK Masters shoot, which took place at Lilleshall. More

Mark Nesbitt on the Five O'clock Show

Did you see Mark Nesbitt on the Five O'Clock Show? More

'Simply Awesome', as Britain's Rikunenko becomes a European champion

British archer Andy Rikunenko wins a European Championship gold medal. More

In the mix for a medal - it's European bronze from Simon and Charlotte

British archers have won the bronze medal in the mixed recurve team tournament, at the European Target Championships, in Rovereto. More

Gales blows her way to top ranking on opening day of archery's European Championships

GB archers have made a great start to the European Archery Championships, taking place in Rovereto, Italy - with Andrea Gales stealing the show in the women's compound. More

Jemma and Tim honoured

Jemma and Tim honoured for contributions to disabled archery. More

Aalin so close to golden glory, but silver a marvellous performance

Britain's Aalin George has won a European Junior Cup silver medal in her first international tournament. More